NEAR A FIGHT AT WOODBURY

One Aged Man, Formerly a Minister, Calls a Witness a Liar.

IVINS PREVENTS BLOWS.

Day Said Rev. Mr. Hill Admitted Making Payments of Graft.

Heated exchanges of epithets to-day marked the proceedings of the Aldermanic street-cleaning investigation.
Two aged men—one of them a minister -passed the He, and would have come to blows had not Mr. Ivins rushed Josiah F. Day, a vehicle manufacturer, said that Rev. Thomas J. Hill admitted to him that he had to pay money as commissions on sales of his garbage push-carts to the Street Cleaning Department. That brought on the first trouble.

While his testimony was being given Mr. Ivins suggested to Major Woodbury that Capt, Gibson be sent for, as the witness testified that Hill had intimated that payments were made to a high officer of the department. The next disturbance was made by

Andrew J. Lusk, walking delegate of Cleaning Department as a stableman. He asked to be axamined at once When told he would have to wait, he defied the committee and left the room and dared the Aldermen to stop him or Mr. Day Starts the Trouble

Josiah Day was the first witness called to the atand to-day. He testined that as manager of Studebaker he furnished the city with sprinkling carts and various venicles.

Q. Did you ever bid to supply the city with 400 push carts or can carriers? A. Yes.

Q. Was that the lowest bid? A. Yes.

Q. What was your bid? A. 39.
Q. What was your bid? A. 49.
Q. What there another bidder? A. Yes.
Thomas J. Hill bid $12.
Q. Who got the contract? A. Hill got the contract after the letting was advertised four times.
Q. Did you ever make a complaint that Hill's bid was accepted and yours was rejected? A. Yes, I complained to Mr. Woodbury and Capt. Gibson, and Mayor Low gave a hearing on the matter. This was four years ago.
At that hearing, the witness testified, Mayor Low cafered Capt. Gibson out of the room. At that hearing Mr. Voss testified that Mr. Hill had told him he was paying $4.50 to somebody in the department as a commission for the sale of each cart. Mr. Hill told Voss during that hearing that he was a liar.

Q. Did you ever have any talk about Q. Did you ever have any talk about this with Mr. Hill? A. Yes; he told me that he was paying $2.25 commission on the sale of carrs, as he wanted to get rid of them.

"You're a Liar," He Sald.

J. Hill, the cart man, gray bearded, fat and all of seventy and all of seventy and the witness, also a very old man.

"You are a damned liar!" repeated Hill.
Old man Day picked up his heavy walking cane and made for old man Hill with blood in his eye. Old man lyins got between them, waving an arm at each of the beiligerents. "Now, now; you are both very old men. You must not get into trouble.

asioner Woodbury then took the Commissioner Woodbury then took the stand and gave his version of the hearing before Mayor Low. He denied that any statement was made of payments of money to any person in the department as commissions. He thought the testimony related entirely to the letting of the contract, and was a mere statement of Hull's fluancial arrangements. Mayor Low, he said, took the same view and ordered that the contract before with a change in the specifications.

The Rev. Thomas J. Hill then took

Hill Denies It, Too. Q. Did you make any such state-ment to Mr. Day as he mentioned? A.

No.
Q. What did you say to him? A. I don't remember, and therefore I know Day lied.
Q. Do you often swear? A. No, indeed, I don't. I don't know how that
